Now that Christmas is mighty near here the subject of candy is an absorbing one with the young people at least who will be surprised to read these figures: In 1850 there were 383 manufactures listed for the United of $1,035,671, a total of $458,904 paid presented to the General Assembly. States, with a total invested capital in wages and a product valued at $3-080,671. The figures for 1900, according to the 12th census, show 4,297 manufactories, 33,583 employes earning $10,867,687 a year in wages; an invested capital of $35,155,361 and an annual product valued at $81,290,543. The best experts put the value of the present output at from $100,000,000 to $125,000,000, but this, as before intisome very large concerns, some of cent mayoralty election in New York. mated, is far below the mark, because which have sales of more than $100,-000 a year, are not scheduled as manufacturers, as they make candy only for their own retail trade, and sell none of it to other dealers. $120,000,000 worth of candy or nearly two pounds to every man, woman and to get your share.
